The Rathskeller could be the most well know building in Comfort with excellent all-around visibility, and access. Constructed in the early 1930s, and initially used as a bar it had the first drive-up window in town. It has also been as a restaurant, residence, game room, youth club, liquor store, retail store, and is currently a law office. Three areas of the building are potential rentals, or a buyer could live in one area, and rent the other two, or operate their own business. Call me today!
